SCAR AAA 5th Workshop 17-19 June 2019 Skyway Mont Blanc

Pavillon Conference Room
@2200 m asl

<https://scar2019.oavda.it>

This edition of SCAR AAA will be held 17-19 June 2019 at the Skyway Monte Bianco in Courmayeur, Italy, between the eternal ice of Mont Blanc. It is being jointly organized by AAA and OAVdA, the Astronomical Observatory of the Autonomous Region of Aosta Valley. See the workshop webpage (<https://scar2019.oavda.it/>) for more details including registration and programme.

The deadline for contribution (oral and posters) is April 30, 2019.

The Workshop venue is immersed in a breathtaking landscape of Mont Blanc thanks to the 360° rotating cabins and 3 futuristic stations with restaurants, bars and entertainment services. Travel grants are available to offset transportation costs to attend the meeting.

The deadline to apply for travel grants is April 30, 2019.

The deadline for early registration is June 1st, 2019.
